Numb. 8147.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday Auguſt 21. to Tueſday Auguſt 24. 1742.

Moſcow, July 26.

YESTERDAY M. de la Chetardie, the French Miniſter, had his Audience of Leave of the Czarina. At Three o'Clock this Morning her Czariſh Majeſty ſet out on Foot, on her Pilgrimage to the Monaſtery of Troitza, (about ſixty Werſts from this City) to offer up her Devotions there, according to the Cuſtom of her Anceſtors upon their Acceſſion to the Throne.

Stockholm, Auguſt 10, O. S. A few Days ago arrived here Lieutenant-General Steinflucht from Hambourg, of which Town he is Commandant: It is thought he will be employed in the Army in Finland. Baron Linden, the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at this Court, is recalled; and having taken his Audience of Leave of his Swediſh Majeſty on Wedneſday laſt, he ſet out the Friday following on his Return Home. The Letters from Finland ſay, that the Swediſh Army is retired to Helſingfors, and that the Muſcovites are advanced as far as Borgo.

Dreſden, Aug. 26. By Letters from Prague we have Advice, that on the 22d the French made another Sally with almoſt all their Garriſon, but were repulſed with great Loſs; there is alſo News from Bavaria, that Marſhal Khevenhuller had burnt a Magazine of Ten Thouſand Loads of Hay, deſigned for the Uſe of M. Maillebois's Army. By Letters from Ratisbon of the 20th we hear, that Colonel Trenck, who had been detached with 800 Men towards the Frontiers of Bohemia, was attacked by Count Saxe with a Corps of 2500 Men, of which a great Number were killed and wounded, and the French repulſed; many Officers are among the Slain, and ſeveral Waggons full of wounded have been ſent to Deckendorff. The ſaid Count afterwards and Duke d'Harcourt, with about 4000 Men, endeavoured to ſurround the Major de St. Andre, whom General Berenclau had ſent with about 300 Huſſars and ſome Pandours to reconnoitre the Enemy; but the Auſtrians, though ſo few, bravely cut their Way through, with the Loſs of only one Pandour killed, and another wounded. The French had ſeven Waggons full of the latter. Marſhal Seckendorff is gone to take on himſelf the Command of the Bavarian Army. It is written from Marſhal Laſcy's Army in Finland, that the Finlanders come in Shoals to ſwear Fidelity to the Czarina; that the Swedes began to reimbark; that their General Lowenhaupt is under Arreſt; and that it is thought that M. Steinfleet is ſent for from Hambourg to command their Army.

Liege, Auguſt 28. We hear from Ratisbon of the 23d Inſtant, That as the French Camp extended itſelf upon the Danube, from Deggendorff to the adjacent Parts of Hengersberg, Count Saxe, judging it proper to contract his Army, had unexpectedly on the 20th, before Daybreak, cauſed the French Troops to decamp from the Neighbourhood of Hengersberg, and to retire to Deggendorff; and that the ſaid Troops had ſcarce begun their March, when the Auſtrian Huſſars harraſs'd them, and, having fallen upon the Arrear Guard, made themſelves Maſters of two Field Pieces and of ſome Proviſions, beſides a great Booty which they got from the Sutlers. This Part of the French Camp was afterwards occupied by the Auſtrian Troops. The Camp is ſeparated from Deggendorff by a ſmall River which diſcharges itſelf into the Danube. The 26th in the Evening his Pruſſian Majeſty, in an open Poſt Chaiſe drawn by eight Horſes, arrived at Aix la Chapelle. His Majeſty was preceeded by two other Poſt Chaiſes. All Honours which the City intended to ſhew the King, have been countermanded, his Majeſty deſiring to be incognito.

Paris, Aug. 29. Cardinal Tencin, and M. D'Argenſon, have been declared Miniſters of State: The former is at Lyons, but expected here every Day.

Oſtend,

1396